

Internal Job Offer BeNe Fraud Specialist

Date: 26 October 2021
Business Line: Collection & Litigation
Position: BeNe Fraud Specialist

Within the BeNe-cluster we are looking for a BeNe Fraud Specialist who will take the lead in the prevention and limiting of fraud within both countries and all business units. You will report directly to the BeNe Collections & Litigation Manager.

What will you be doing as BeNe Fraud Specialist?

- Gather, analyse and interpret internal and external (fraud) data;
- Act as single point of contact for all stakeholders with regard to fraud, also internally and externally;
- Provide regular training to other departments to ensure they all know fraud prevention and recognize fraud;
- Translate corporate policies and procedures to the daily business;
- Write fraud prevention policies for all departments;
- Propose and follow process improvements or new initiatives for effective and efficient fraud prevention;
- Perform in depth analysis on fraud cases and report frequently on fraud cases.

You recognize yourself in this

- You are results-oriented and work in a structured manner;
- You are pragmatical and able to work independently;
- You know how to connect stakeholders from different departments;
- You are able to reprioritize quickly if needed and manage tasks efficiently;
- You have a college degree;
- You preferably speak and understand English and Dutch. You preferably also have an excellent command of French, both verbal and written;
- You are willing to travel to Brussels and 's-Hertogenbosch;
- You preferably have extensive experience in the leasing environment;
- You are flexible and open to new tasks and responsibilities if needed (eg. asset management, recovery, etc.);
- It is an advantage if you are able to manage a large project.

What else are you looking for in a job

- Challenging work in a dynamic environment;
- Opportunities to further develop yourself; and
- International work environment.
